Tom Brauch

Managed Aaron as the President of Fpweb.net

In our time at Fpweb.net, Aaron single-handedly transformed a company brand that was completely unknown into the strongest worldwide brand in the hosting industry, second only to perhaps Rackspace and Microsoft. Aaron's rare natural leadership abilities combined with his impeccable sense of design and brand strategy resulted in revenues tripling during his time as Creative Director – leading both the Web Services and Marketing Teams.

Aaron possesses a rare combination of skills that go far beyond just 'creative'. He also demonstrates incredible business savvy and has an uncanny ability to focus on the 'big picture', elevating his team and entire company to new heights. He understands that the single most important goal of any web site or marketing effort – is to increase profitability by demonstrating consistent ROI.

In the end, and most importantly – Aaron understands that above all, it's about people and relationships. His team gave him 100% trust and respect because he truly led by example and empowered them to use their considerable talents to deliver business value. Year after year during peer reviews and reviews given by his direct reports, he scored off the charts in leadership style, communication, job knowledge, work ethic and management abilities.

Aaron's only fault was that he could do so many things well and was always eager to do anything asked of him. This made it hard to limit what projects we put on his plate. Often times the answer to a business problem, marketing or otherwise – was to just give it to Aaron since we knew he would somehow manage it all and knock it out of the park.

Aaron will be an asset to an organization looking to make huge leaps forward with their marketing, brand, web site, web app or business process design efforts.

Ellie Rodgers

linkedin.com/ellierodgers

Managed by Aaron as Marketing Coordinator at Fpweb.net

My recommendation of Aaron comes from the many different facets in which I worked with him, first as a boss then as a peer, always as a mentor. Aaron has single handedly created a world class brand from scratch and I have been lucky to have been able to learn from the example he has set.

His management style is unparalleled in my experience. His effortless way of placing the utmost value on relationships within departments created a camaraderie that shifted the entire company culture at Fpweb.net.

Aaron's leadership abilities are only slightly outshined by his talents and creative thinking in graphic design, web development, branding, and all areas of marketing. Whether it be working with Aaron as he designed a two story exhibit booth, developing new slogans on a dime, or reworking entire sites in an afternoon, he always left me inspired.

I truly hope to have the opportunity to work with Aaron again in the future.

Mark Borcharding

linkedin.com/markborcherding

Managed by Aaron as Lead .Net Developer at Fpweb.net

I've never worked with someone with greater ability to attack problems and produce results. Aaron's hunger to tackle whatever problem is asked of him is second to none.

I've seen Aaron excel at anything he's given, whether it is transforming a brand's web presence from unknown to superstar, or translating financial information from reams of numbers to useful information.

Aaron has strong leadership instincts. He guides when the team needs guidance and stays hands off when the team is excelling on its own. Aaron would be an amazing asset to any organization.

Peter Cartier

linkedin.com/petercartier

Managed by Aaron as Senior Copywriter at Fpweb.net

I had the pleasure of working with Aaron while he was the Creative Director at Fpweb.net.

Between his direction, unimposing authority and sense of humor, I quickly adapted to this fast-paced, often stressful work environment knowing that I had his support.

Aaron possesses the rare, must-have quality for a director: he is able to lead a team that respects and works hard for him while he simultaneously produces innovative, fresh work himself. His natural, creative talent allows him to excel at a variety of different projects, while using a variety of mediums to create each project.

Aaron's creativity bled into every department. His leadership, talent, and work-ethic showed in his pride for the company's image. This led him to lend his creative services to each team within the company to make sure there was a uniform brand. Aaron was able to successfully balance the additional work-load with quality, impressive results. He can always be counted on to stick with a project until the polished end result.

Aaron's personality and portfolio speak for themselves. Meet him and you'll see.

Chris Schwab

Worked with Aaron as SharePoint Eng. Director at Fpweb.net

Aaron is simply one of the best people I have ever had the pleasure of working with. His natural leadership skills are remarkable, making him a fantastic manager. He has leveraged those skills on the Fpweb.net leadership team by providing company vision and helping Fpweb.net navigate through multiple years of success.

He has used his considerable creative skills to create the Fpweb.net brand, and to create a world class website. He never hesitates to take on a new challenge and always takes the initiative to speak out when needed. I am confident that Aaron would excel in any role he chooses to take on.
